CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Hi Ms. Kelley,

Judge Brown asked me to go to RAD to help Ms. Hudson with her laptop again. I went today and when I arrived the staff at RAD advised she was refusing the legal visit and I was not able to see her. I will file a notice on the ECF later so it is on the record but I wanted to let the court know.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Good morning,

The laptop has just been dropped off to RAD. They will have their IT person check it to make sure the internet is disabled and then give it to Ms. Hudson, but I do not know how long they will take to actually give it to her. Do we still need a pretrial conference on Thursday?

Hi, please see the attached e-mail from RAD. I received a voicemail from the Government today advising that Judge Brown would like an update on the laptop situation concerning his order. On October 13th I took the laptop to RAD, but I was turned around and they said despite the court order, it needed to go through some internal approval with the warden and I could not leave the laptop with them. I was told to wait to hear from them as to when I could bring the laptop. Today, on October 21st, RAD e-mailed me and said I can now bring the laptop to RAD to be inspected by their IT person to confirm the internet is disabled. When this process is complete, I believe RAD will provide the laptop to Ms. Hudson. I had a sentencing hearing today in Gainesville with Judge Story, so I was not able to bring the laptop to RAD, which is in the opposite driving direction in Lovejoy. I will drop the laptop off at RAD tomorrow as per their e-mail.

Good afternoon, Mr. Thomas,

Since Ms. Hudson is representing herself at trial on November 10th, she will need to arrange for someone to bring clothing for her to change into for court each day. Can you please make sure she is aware of this?
